The finest lot of horses and mules ever brought to Kirksville, came in Saturday and Monday. The farmers were badly disappointed when they found no buyer, and will not again respond so readily to Mr. Block's advertisement.

The Farmers Institute will be held in Kirksville, January 28, 29, and 30, 1902. Farmers should make preparation to attend every day of the Institute. These meetings will be of great value and no progressive farmer can afford to miss a single one of them.

The young man who was seized with a fit at the Wabash depot, Tuesday morning proved to be a patient that had come from Oskaloosa, Mo., to be treated by Dr. Still. He took one treatment, and Wednesday morning declared that it was the first time he had been free from headache for years.

Mr. Ed. Keith, the popular traveling salesman, has accepted a position for the New Year, with Franklin, McVeagh & Co., of Chicago, wholesale fancy grocers, the largest firm of the kind in the country. A large increase of salary is one of the pleasing features of the change.

Jack Murray who attacked night watchman Pratt near the Wabash depot last Thursday night was arrested at LaPlata Friday. He was returned to Kirksville Friday night, and lodged in jail. He was brought before the Mayor for trial Saturday and was fined $15. His brother was present from Marceline and paid fine and costs, and Jack was set at liberty.

The suit of Oliver Hughes against the Wabash was concluded Tuesday afternoon at Macon. Hughes a saloon keeper, of Macon, brought suit for $500 damages because whiskey was drunk on the Des Moines excursion train last August. The result of the trial was a hung jury. Three of the jurors favored giving Hughes one cent damages, and nine were in favor of giving him nothing.

The fine residence of D. C. Pierce is now almost ready for occupancy, and the contractors, Sees & Son have certainly made an enduring reputation. The inside finish, folding and entrance doors, all hand made, are of beautiful design and exhibit the most exquisite workmanship, the entrance doors each containing 110 separate pieces. The residence is one of the finest in North Missouri and is an ornament to our city.

What is it makes George Edmonds so cool and placid, and how does he do such deep thinking? It is because he never allows himself to be harassed with colds. He takes Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he does. Sold everywhere for 25 cents.

Dealers say they can't sell any other liniment since the introduction of Salvation Oil.

Don't try to kill a fly on your neighbor's head with a hammer.

This is Pretty Good.

Mr. John C. Goodwin, carpenter of Danville, Ill., writes: "About two weeks ago a heavy saw log fell upon my foot very badly crushing it, so that I was unable to walk at all. I sent for a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and kept my foot well saturated with it. It is now two weeks since this happened, and my foot is nearly well and I am at work. Had I not used Snow Liniment I should have been laid up at least 2 months. For healing wounds, sprains, sores and bruises it has no equal. No inflammation can exist where Snow Liniment is used. "You can use this letter." Beware of all white liniments substituted for Snow Liniment. There is no other liniment like Ballard's Snow Liniment. Sold by Smith & Dunkin.
